1992 Bally Doctor Who Pinball Machine - $6000 (Harlem / Morningside)

condition: excellent

make / manufacturer: bally

Doctor Who pinball machine is designed by Bill Pfitzenreuter (Pftuz) and Barry Oursler, and released by Midway (under the Bally brand name) in September 1992. It is based on the television series of the same name. As stated in the Gameplay section, the rulesheet is rather different from other pinball machines released at the time, which didn't help popularity (and even now it is still seen as an exotic machine amongst collectors) as casual players did not understand the complex rule changes that occur during the game.

Game Features:

Flippers (3; the two main flippers - "Lightning" Flippers - are shorter than the standard size flippers), Ramps (2), Multiball. Three Level Mini-Playfield.
