HOHENLIMBURG. "It was arson. And that on the ground floor of the house. "That's what the experts say about seven weeks after the fire on the Haardtstraße.

The fire that raged in the early morning of December 27, 2018 on Haardtstraße in the Obernahmer, thereby completely destroyed an apartment building and made Damaris Sieber-Scheene and her four children homeless , has been deliberately laid. The external experts, who are investigating the cause of the fire for Kripo Hagen, are meanwhile assuming that.

That informed the Kripo Hagen yesterday on request of this newspaper. However, these investigations, according to the press office, have shown that the origin of the major fire was not in or on the red Renault Kangoo.

INFO

The forces had initially run out on the day of the fire. "The car has nothing to do with the fire. The fire probably originated on the ground floor of the house. This was used as a cellar, "said the police. Damaris Sieber-Scheene lived with her children in parts of the upper floor of the house.

New apartment for the burnt victims of the Haardtstraße

Still, the investigations of the experts are not completed. "Therefore, the case has not yet been submitted to the prosecutor Hagen."

Kripo keeps asking Hinweise

For technical reasons, Kripo Hagen does not wish to comment on the further state of affairs and the content of the report.

Nevertheless, the police asks again for more information: Who observed something suspicious in the night of December 27 or in the early morning in the vicinity of the apartment building on Haardtstraße? The Kripo Hagen advises you to call +49 (0) 2331 / 986-2066.

Found a new apartment

Damaris Sieber-Scheene has meanwhile found a new apartment on the Hobräcker Weg with her children . Thanks to the support of the association "Hohenlimburg helps".
